International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes

August 16, 1982

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Pursuant to Administrative and Financial Regulation 4(4), I hereby submit to the Administrative Council for its approval the Annual Report on the operation of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes required by Article 6(1)(g) of the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States. This Sixteenth Annual Report covers the fiscal year July 1, 1981 to June 30, 1982.

The report includes the audited financial statements of the Centre, presented pursuant to Administrative and Financial Regulation 18.

Sincerely yours,

H. Golsong
Secretary-General

Mr. A. W. Clausen
Chairman
Administrative Council
International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes

Membership

During the past fiscal year the Convention was signed by Paraguay on July 27, 1981, by Costa Rica on September 29, 1981, by the United Arab Emirates on December 23, 1981, and by El Salvador on June 9, 1982, bringing the number of signatories to 88. The United Arab Emirates deposited their instrument of ratification on December 23, 1981, bringing the number of Contracting States to 81.

Promotional Activities

In order to assist potential users of the Centre's facilities, the Centre has published an entirely revised set of Model Clauses (ICSID/5/Rev.1). All the Centre's publications now appear in its three official languages, English, French and Spanish.

On January 21, 1982, the Centre organized, with the assistance of UNIDROIT and of the Italian Arbitration Association, a colloquium held at UNIDROIT's headquarters entitled "Foreign Investments and the Settlement of Disputes under the Convention of Washington of 1965." The colloquium was attended by a large number of businessmen, judges, government officials and lawyers specialized in international arbitration. The discussion showed great familiarity on the part of the audience with the original features of the Centre. The papers presented at the colloquium and the proceedings of the discussion will be published in the near future in the Italian Arbitration Review.

A significantly increased number of questions relating to practical issues arising in connection with the use of the Centre has been submitted to the Secretariat. This clearly shows a new interest in the Centre on the part of certain governments and investors.

On June 15, 1982, the Centre receives the Respondents' counter-memorial and supporting documentation.

Finance

The Financial Statements of the Centre for Fiscal Year 1982 are set forth in Annex 6. The expenditures of the Centre were again covered entirely by the services and facilities made available by the World Bank free of charge pursuant to the Memorandum of Administrative Arrangements concluded between the Bank and the Centre in February 1967,² and by income from the sale of publications. Thus it was not necessary to assess any excess expenditures to the Contracting States pursuant to Article 17 of the Convention.

The Centre's expenses which are attributable to the pending arbitration proceedings are borne by the parties in accordance with the Centre's Administrative and Financial Regulations. In accordance with these Regulations, the Secretary-General calls on the parties from time to time to make advance deposits to defray the expenses of the proceedings.

² The text of which is set forth in Annex 5 of the First Annual Report, in relation to AC(M)RES/3.

² Denmark excluded, by a notification received on May 15, 1968, the Faroe Islands; by a notification received on October 30, 1968, Denmark extended the application of the Convention to the Faroe Islands as of January 1, 1969.

³ Germany declared, on depositing its instrument of ratification, that the Convention would also apply to the Land Berlin.

The Memorandum of Administrative Arrangements between the Centre and the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (the Bank) which became effective as of October 14, 1966, provides, inter alia, that, except to the extent that the Centre may be reimbursed by the parties to proceedings for fees and expenses of members of Conciliation Commissions, Arbitral Tribunals or Committees of Arbitrators, the Bank shall provide the following services and facilities to the Centre:

- (1) the services of staff members and consultants; and
- (2) other administrative services and facilities, such as travel, communications, office accommodations, furniture, equipment, supplies and printing.

The Centre does not have resources of its own. The reported expenditures on behalf of the Centre represent the value of the services provided by the Bank and include only those amounts identified by the Bank as being directly related to the Centre, and, accordingly, do not include any indirect or overhead costs of the Bank. The reported contributions of $238,268 and $217,084 in 1982 and 1981, respectively, are equal to the value of services provided by the Bank, less reimbursements by the Centre from its sale of publications and registration fees. The Centre's expenses which are attributable to arbitration proceedings are borne by the parties in accordance with the Centre's Administrative and Financial Regulations. In accordance with these Regulations, the Secretary-General calls on the parties to make advance deposits with the Centre from time to time to defray these expenses. The cash balances reflected in the statements of composition of fund balance represent advances from parties to proceedings and amounts due to the Bank.
